

Mary Ranive L. Cadeliña

BSCpE 4-A

1) Why do we need to perform memory testing?

We need to perform memory testing for us to check if the storage location in memory device is functional as well as the address and data lines to the memory chips are all properly connected.